Saladworks, the nation's first and largest fresh-tossed salad franchise concept, recently launched a new menu to set itself apart from the competition. The new menu focuses on health trends that consumers want, and introduces three new salads (the Thai chicken salad, the Mediterranean salad and the Farmhouse salad), seven new toppings and a new dressing, as well as some changes to existing products.

Guests can also expect to see more kale, quinoa, roasted Brussels sprouts and farm-to-table influences available. Although the company specializes in both make-your-own and fresh to order salad menu offerings, the brand also boasts a delicious sandwich menu for both in store and catering. Served on varying types of bread, the new menu contains several sandwich creations, including a West Coast turkey, loaded chicken salad, tuna salad sandwich and avocado BLT.

Swing by the Saladwork's location at 484 Second Street Pike, Southampton, on Tuesday and Saturday for a special-priced combo featuring a half signature salad and small cup of soup for $6.99.
